Re: Wilderness Watch v. Hall, et al., No. 23-cv-284 (NEB/LIB)

Dear Magistrate Judge Brisbois:

Defendants file this letter on behalf of all parties with permission from chambers.

This letter is to inform Your Honor that the parties have met and conferred, and agree this administrative-law matter is not reasonably capable of resolution. We would be glad to explain on a status call the ways in which we have thoroughly explored and considered settlement options with our respective clients and through substantive communications, in light of the extensive history of this case and its predecessor filed in 2015.

Given the above, the parties jointly request that the settlement conference set for December 17, 2024 be taken off the calendar.

Sincerely,

ANDREW M. LUGER
United States Attorney
